UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

JACQUELINE SHANDRELL ANDERSON,

Defendant

ORDER OF DETENTION

Docket No. 07-M-1050

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3142(f), a detention hearing was held on June 28, 2007. The parties proceeded by proffer. In addition, the Government called ICE Senior Special Agent Brian L. Korzak as a witness.

Based upon Agent Korzak's testimony, as well as the other evidenced proffered at the hearing, I find that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure defendant's appearance as required. Defendant is a citizen of Jamaica, who has been working in Cleveland, Ohio. She obtained a visa in October 1998, which only permitted a six-month stay. Defendant has exceeded that time limit. By complaint dated June 26, 2007, defendant is charged with willfully making a false claim to United States citizenship and knowingly using a means of identification of another person to commit unlawful activity in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§911 and 1028(a)(7). According to Agent Korzak, if defendant were released on bail, she would either be deported by INS to Jamaica, or returned to Canada which, in turn, would deport her to Jamaica. I have considered the factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. §3142(g), including the defendant's lack of ties to the community and the nature of the charges pending against her, and conclude that detention is warranted. Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3142(i)(2), defendant be committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal; and it is further

ORDERED that, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3142(i)(3), defendant be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel; and it is further ORDERED that, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3142(i)(4), upon order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which defendant is confined, deliver defendant to United States Marshals for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.
